Hanging Acoustic Panel Installation Guide

Installing Hanging Hardware
*Ceiling mount is not provided

1

Insert cable into looping gripper

2

Pass cable through or around anchor point

3

Insert cable back into looping gripper. Cable must exit looper gripper by a minimum of 1 in.
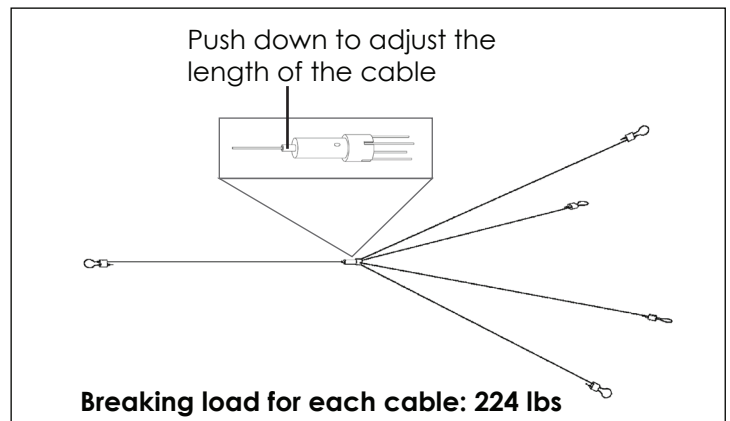

Identifying Parts

*Wire can be cut to size but must be cut at an angle

10 ft

3 ft

Available in 3 or 4 chains

3 Chain   4 Chain

Brass Adjuster (Griplock)

D-ring with chain and looping gripper

Push down to adjust the length of the cable

Breaking load for each cable: 224 lbs
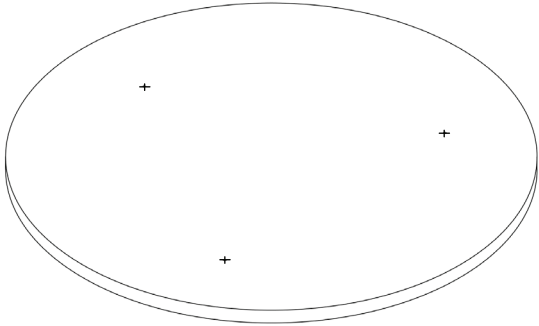

*D-ring quantity varies based on the size of the panels.
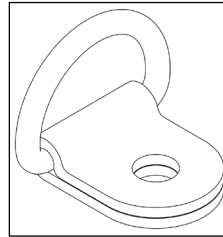

Step 1:
Locate markings on circle panel.

Step 2:
Place D-rings on panel in marked areas and attach with screws provided.

D-ring close-up
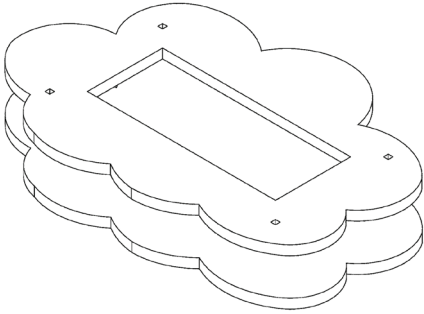

Step 3:
Secure D-rings in place.

Step 4:
Attach chains and hang in desired location.
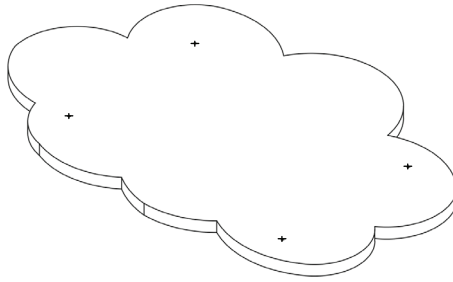

*D-ring quantity varies based on the size of the panels.

Step 1:
Use provided template to make markings for D-Rings.

Step 2:
Locate markings on cloud panel.

Step 3:
Place D-rings on panel in marked areas and attach with screws provided.

Step 4:
Secure D-rings in place.

Step 5:
Attach chains and hang in desired location.

HANGING RECTANGLE PANELS
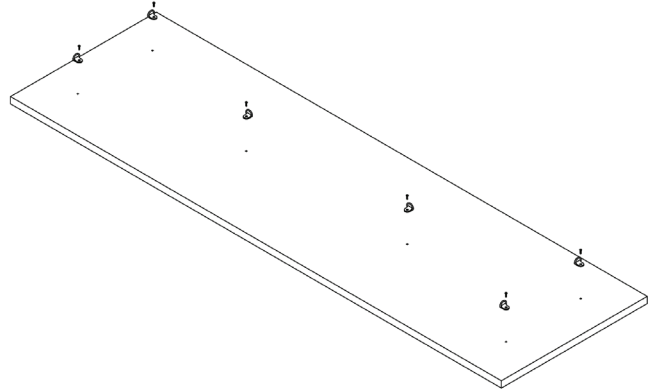

*D-ring quantity varies based on the size of the panels.
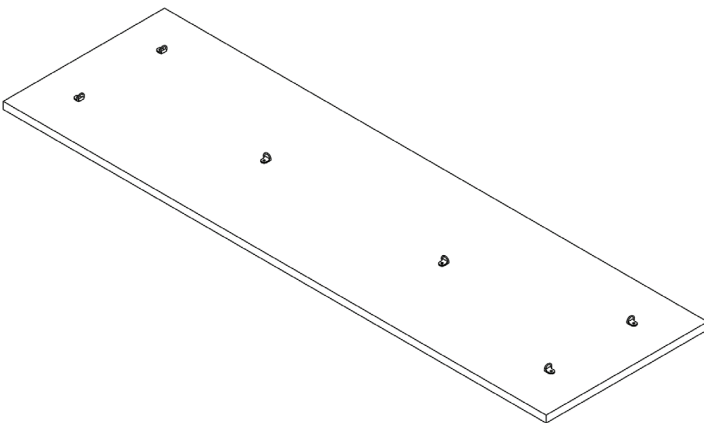

Step 1:
Locate markings on rectangle panel.

Step 2:
Place D-rings on panel in marked areas and attach with screws provided.
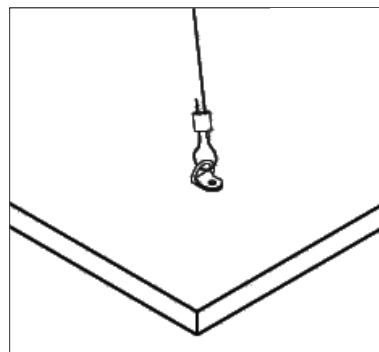

Step 3:
Secure D-rings in place.

Step 4:
Attach chains and hang in desired location. (Chains are not provided by SKUTCHI.)

Close-up of D-ring with chain attached

Step 1:

Panel will come with U-channel already attached.

Step 2:

Attach chains and hang in desired location. (Chains are not provided by SKUTCHI.)

Close-up of U-channel

Close-up of U-channel with chain attached